Brief Synopsis

Current situation:

Perimeter remains unchanged; traffic points as far out as SJAM to Booth; footprint around Bay, South to Albert continuing to Elgin (no Northbound traffic), Wellington to Rideau up Dalhousie, closed both sides of US Embassy on Murray and Sussex. Protesters have moved their vehicles West at Wellington St & MacKenzie, which blocks the E/B to S/B egress route.

Enforcement

Traffic enforcement.

The traffic Units NRT & CET continued their enforcement in the neighbourhoods surrounding the Freedom Convoy area. In addition, Ottawa Bylaw embedded with OPS in order to issue parking-related offence notices. (total number of charges laid overnight not available)

Criminal Code Offences

Seven individuals were arrested for aiding and abetting the offence of mischief. All were involved in the transportation of fuel into the red zone. Central Investigators have carriage of the investigations. Unknown number of charges at this time.

Public Order Units

Public Order Units attended the area of RCGT Park on Coventry Rd to address the refueling station. Officers attended and identified numerous propane and jerry cans in the area. With the assistance of Ottawa Fire, the following was seized:

2x 55 gal drums diesel, 9x 25l jerry cans of diesel, 22x 25l jerry cans gas, 64x 20lb propane tanks, 1x 50lb propane tank, 3x 100lb propane tanks, 1x 1000gal tanker trailer (unk content)

As of 0001hrs, Officers were called back as subjects were seen entering the park with jerry cans. Due to the number of occupiers, officers could not engage.
